Dear Kathleen Sebelius, Secretary of Health & Human Services,

All women need the chance to determine when and if they will have children, and such preventive measures will save money on long term costs tied to unplanned pregnancies. Therefore, I commend the Department of Health & Human Services' landmark decision requiring health insurers to cover the full cost of contraception, with no co-pay, beginning in August 2012.

Thank you for prioritizing women's basic health care needs.

Sincerely,
Jane Desmond
